

The Institute of Polish Language and The Institute of German Studies, University of Warsaw, and the Polish Language Foundation invite you to the 8th conference “Key words”, which will be held on December 2nd-3rd, 2022, at the University of Warsaw.

The conference is devoted to keywords in the public discourse and the methods of their choosing. This theme brings together different methodologies and different levels of analysis of language and discourse, including:

- Statistics linguistics
- Corpus linguistics and linguistic engineering
- Media studies
- Lexicology and lexicography

By combining different methods and experiences, we will describe the keywords of contemporary public discourse. Our expertise comes from daily, weekly, and monthly reports in “Words in time” project (www.slowanaczasie.uw.edu.pl) and the “The word of the year” poll. We will look with interest at similar projects in other countries. This year, our conference takes place when words of the year 2022 will be already have been chosen in some European countries. We will try to examine them.

Conference languages: Polish, German, English and Ukrainian.
